

XXXIII Dynamics Days US

January 2-5, 2014

We invite you to join us at the Dynamics Days US 2014, hosted by the Center for Nonlinear Science. The conference will take place on the campus of Georgia Tech and will cover new developments in modeling, mathematical foundations, applications, and experiments in all areas related to dynamical systems.

Invited Speakers:

Igor Aronson	Argonne National Laboratory
Annalisa Bracco	Georgia Tech
Paul Bressloff	University of Utah
Cristel Chandre	Centre de Physique Théorique, Marseille
Elizabeth Cherry	Rochester Institute of Technology
Noah Cowan	John Hopkins University
Eva Kanso	University of Southern California
Daniel Koditschek	University of Pennsylvania
Jonathan Mattingly	Duke University
James Meiss	University of Colorado
Peter Mucha	University of North Carolina
Ilya Nemenman	Emory University
Itamar Procaccia	Weizmann Institute of Science
Erin Rericha	Vanderbilt University
Arnd Scheel	University of Minnesota
Stiven Schiff	Penn State
Yohannes Shiferaw	CA State Univ., Northridge
Josh Socolar	Duke University
Joshua Weitz	Georgia Tech
